14th January 2022

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Early Years – The Grand Ball – Thursday 27th January

As you will be aware, our 'You Shall Go to the Ball' topic is now in full swing! The children have begun preparing for the Grand Ball by writing invitations, retelling the Cinderella story and by learning how to ballroom dance, amongst many other things.

We are hoping to be able to invite you to join us at our Grand Ball, but a final decision will be made 3 days before, based on our risk assessment and current case numbers in school, and we will contact you with the outcome. If we are unable to invite you to the ball, we will video the event and share it with you.

The Grand Ball will be held on Thursday 27th January, in the school hall. Please find below the details:

Dragonflies and Ladybirds will perform their dance at 1:30pm in the school hall. (Please arrive at 1:25pm)

Butterflies and Bumblebees will perform their dance at 2:15pm in the school hall. (Please arrive at 2:10pm)

The children will return to class and leave school in the usual way at 3pm.

The children may come to school on this day dressed in their best ball attire. This might be a gown, tuxedo or party clothes and we invite you to dress up for the Grand Ball too, just as the teachers will be! As the children will need to go out to play during the day, please ensure they are wearing suitable footwear and that they bring a coat to wear outside.

As this is a popular event, we do have to limit the number of places to a maximum of two per child. Younger siblings may attend but must remain with their adult at all times and any pushchairs will need to be left outside or in the foyer. We would kindly ask you to adhere to the following measures:

- Wear a face covering throughout the event
- Complete an LFD test the morning of the performance and only attend if this is negative

Yours faithfully
